

Dr. Maurizio A. Miglietta

Chief, Division of Acute Care
Surgery
Director of Trauma & Emergency
Surgery

Dr. Miglietta is the Chief of Acute Care Surgery at the New York-Presbyterian Hospital. Prior to his new role at Columbia, Dr. Miglietta

served as Chief of the Division of Trauma & Critical Care at New York University School of Medicine and Director of Trauma and Co-Director of the SICU at the renowned and historic Bellevue Hospital Trauma Center in New York City.

Dr. Miglietta completed Trauma and Surgical Critical Care Fellowships at the world-renowned R Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Center and University of Maryland. Dr. Miglietta is the Police Surgeon for the United States Secret Service – NYFO and an Honorary Police Surgeon for the New York City Police Department. Dr. Miglietta has authored and co-authored numerous peer-reviewed publications and is dual board certified in Surgery and Critical Care.

Lecture Topics (for medical and non-medical professionals):

- Explosive Trauma
- Cervical spine clearance in trauma
- Splenic trauma
- Hypotensive resuscitation
- Initial trauma resuscitation
- Surgical Infections
- Nuclear, biological, and chemical weapons in disaster management
- Evaluation and treatment of Gunshot wounds
- Trauma for the non-trauma center
- Traumatic Amputations
- Abdominal Compartment Syndrome
- What you need to know to save a life